DETAILED ACTION

Preliminary Amendment

1. The amendment filed November 5, 2001 and the supplemental amendment filed January 3, 2002 have been entered. The specification has been amended.

Specification

2. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it is not in narrative form. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).
3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed to.

Claim Objections

5. Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities: The extra colon (:) at the end of line 1 should be deleted.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wood et al. (US 2002/0045154 A1), hereinafter referred to as "Wood".

As per claims 1-3, Wood teaches a computer-assisted method and apparatus for typing customer/prospects comprising the steps of:

- "refining a survey via bestfit clustering" at page 8, [0182] – [0192];
- "refining survey results via composition analysis" at page 9, [0227];
- "identifying clusters of customer/prospects from the survey results via champion/challenger cluster refinement and panel analysis" at page 12, [0298] – [0301].

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record, listed on form PTO-892, and not relied upon, if any, is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
